

The Greatest Story Ever Told

Christus

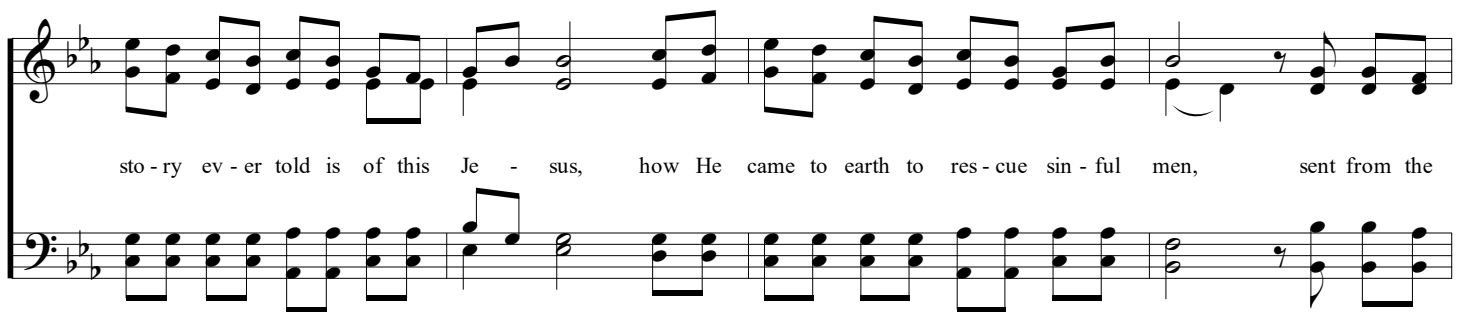

1. Sin grips the heart with-in— a curse on fal - len men. This pride and self - ish - ness we hold in - side. Though
2. He lived a per - fect life and gave the blind their sight, ful - filled the things fore - told by proph - e - cy. He
3. This Son of God who gave His life and took the grave o - beyed His Fa - ther's will des - pite the cost. But we were all con-demned, we had a lov - ing friend who came to save us. (to save us) hum - bly took his cross and died to save the lost, their sins for - giv - en. (for - giv - en) The great - est death could not con - tain His pow'r, His love, His grace, for He is ri - sen! (is ri - sen!)

Refrain

sto - ry ev - er told is of this Je - sus, how He came to earth to res - cue sin - ful men, sent from the Fa - ther up a - bove to sac - ri - fice in love and take our place— and give un - end - ing grace.

Words & music: Adam Morgan