1. All hail the might - y Con - queror, Christ Je - sus, our great King!
 2. Yet how can we in - her - it this ti - tle "con - queror" too?
 3. But ris - ing up vic - to - rious he con - quered death and sin,
 4. "You can - not be de - feat - ed by tri - als in this life.
 5. Now since our God is for us, what have we then to fear?

All hail the glo - rious War - rior, to whom our praise we bring.
 We have not earned the mer - it or fame that is his due.
 and reigns in heav - en glo - rious, each con - flict set to win.
 The con - quest is com - plet - ed o'er Sa - tan, sin, and strife.
 Though en - e - mies de - plore us, we face them all with cheer.

May he be giv - en hon - ors by all his ran - somed host:
 For we have on - ly failed him by ev - 'ry sin and doubt;
 To those of his own choos - ing he shares the vic - to - ry;
 No pain, no trib - u - la - tion, no dan - ger, fam - ine, sword,
 For we will be tri - um - phant: each foe will be trod down we, too, are more than con - querors who make his name our boast.

 in - deed, we cruel - ly nailed him and cast the Con - queror out.
 says, "Though you once were los - ing, come con - quer now through me."
 no - noth - ing in cre - a - tion can con - quer those in God."
 be - neath the Christ ex - ult - ant, who shares the Con - queror's crown.
